

Slide 1

Cancer Pain Education for Patients and the Public

Module III
Pain Education Provided
Through Group Settings
Betty R. Ferrell, PhD, FAAN

Slide 2

Advantages of Group Education

- More Cost Efficient
- Combines Professional and Peer Support
- Patients May be More Vocal in Group Settings
- Access to an Existing Audience
- Rich and Diverse Experience of Group Members

Slide 3

Advantages of Group Education

More Cost Efficient

Slide 4

Advantages of Group Education

Combines Professional and Peer Support

Slide 5

Advantages of Group Education

Patients May be More Vocal
in Group Settings

Slide 6

Advantages of Group Education

Access to an Existing Audience

Slide 7

Advantages of Group Education

Rich and Diverse Experience of Group Members

Slide 8

Challenges of Group Education

- Diversity Within the Group
- Balance of Information and Support
- Your Agenda/Their Agenda
- Pain Content May Evoke Undisclosed Fears (i.e. fear of recurrence or death)
- Diversity of Primary Health Care Providers Among Patients
- Combining Patients and Family Caregivers

Slide 9

Challenges of Group Education

Diversity Within the Group

Slide 10

Challenges of Group Education

Balance of Information and Support

Slide 11

Challenges of Group Education

Your Agenda/Their Agenda

Slide 12

Challenges of Group Education

Pain Content May Evoke Undisclosed Fears (i.e. fear of recurrence or death)

Slide 13

Challenges of Group Education

Diversity of Primary Health Care Providers
Among Patients

Slide 14

Challenges of Group Education

Avoid Domination
by a Single Group Member

Slide 15

Challenges of Group Education

Combining Patients and Family Caregivers

Slide 16

Teaching Tips

- Speaker to Attendee Ratio
- Know the Real Audience
- Provide Written Reinforcement
- Provide Time for Individual Discussion
- Create a Positive Environment
- Time, Location of Classes

Slide 17

Teaching Tips

- Provide Mechanisms for Individual Case Intervention
- Provide Mechanisms for Follow Up

Slide 18

Teaching Tips

- Speaker to Attendee Ratio

Slide 19

Teaching Tips

Know the Real Audience

Slide 20

Teaching Tips

Provide Written Reinforcement

Slide 21

Teaching Tips

Provide Time for Individual Discussion

Slide 22

Teaching Tips

Create a Positive Environment

Slide 23

Teaching Tips

Time, Location of Classes

Slide 24

Teaching Tips

Provide Mechanisms
for Individual Case Intervention

Slide 25

Teaching Tips

Provide Mechanisms for Follow-Up
