

PRIVILEGE: Pain Resource Nurse

To obtain this privilege, the nurse must:

Obtain Nurse Manager recommendation to attend training program
Attend 100% of the Pain Resource Nurse training curriculum
Attain minimum of 80% correct answers on post-test

To maintain this privilege, the nurse must:

Attend a minimum of three monthly meetings each year (PRN, Pain-Patient Care Team, or Pain Case Conference, or a combination thereof)

Demonstration of acting as a resource for staff by involvement in at least two of the following areas:

- a. consultation with others (nursing and non-nursing staff) regarding the development of individual pain management plans
- b. provision of pain management staff inservices
- c. precepting nursing staff in areas of pain management (assessment, IV PCA, spinal analgesia, pharmacologic and/or non-pharmacologic interventions)
- d. involvement or development of clinical programs targeted at improving pain management practices (facilitation of QA/I studies, multidisciplinary pain rounds, needs assessments, etc.)
- e. critical pathway review or development related to pain management
- f. development of patient education materials or programs in pain management
- g. review or development of policies and procedures related to pain management

Pain Resource Nurse Annual Re-Privileging Evaluation
University of Wisconsin Hospital and Clinics

| | | | | | |
|------|--|------|--|------|--|
| Name | | Unit | | Date | |
|------|--|------|--|------|--|

1. 1994 meeting attendance (PRN, Pain-Patient Care Team, and/or Pain Case Conferences)

2. Demonstration of acting as a resource for staff by involvement in at least two of the following areas:

- ___ a. consultation with others regarding the development of individual pain management plans
- ___ b. provision of pain management staff inservices
- ___ c. precepting nursing staff in area of pain management (assessment, IV PCA, spinal analgesia, pharmacologic and/or non-pharmacologic interventions)
- ___ d.involvement or development of clinical programs targeted at improving pain management practice (facilitation of QA/I studies, multidisciplinary pain rounds, needs assessment, etc.)
- ___ e.critical pathway review or development related to pain management
- ___ f.development of patient education materials or programs in pain management
- ___ g.review or development of policies and procedures related to pain management
- ___ h.other: _____

3. Pre-test Score _____ Post-test Score _____ 1st year Score _____

4. 1995 Calendar Year Goals:

| Goals | Strategies to Achieve Goals | Estimated target date to meet goals |
|-------|-----------------------------|-------------------------------------|
|-------|-----------------------------|-------------------------------------|

Signatures: Pain Resource Nurse
 Nurse Manager
 Program Coordinator